CommonJS is the default module system used in Node.js. It uses require() for importing and module.exports or exports for exporting.

ESM is the newer standard for modules in JavaScript. It uses import for importing and export for exporting. To use ESM in Node.js, you need to set the type to module in your package.json or use .mjs file extensions.